

CALL FOR EMPLOYMENT APPLICATIONS – MAMISARVIK HEALING CENTRE

Tungasuvvingat Inuit is pleased to announce that the Mamisarvik Healing Centre will re-open its doors in the fall of 2018.

With over 30 years of highly successful experience in crafting the design, development and delivery of a wide range of effective, client-centered services, Tungasuvvingat Inuit (TI) continues to deliver quality programs and services that directly benefit our growing urban Inuit population.

We are currently looking to build our team as we prepare to re-open the Mamisarvik Healing Centre, TI's trauma and addictions treatment program. Mamisarvik is recognized throughout the country as a centre of excellence. It is the primary model for Inuit, evidence-based, trauma-and-addiction treatment in Canada and was an early leader in the field's movement toward trauma-informed recovery.

Positions We Need to Fill

Elder
Intake and Assessment Worker
Counsellors
Administrative Assistant

Closing Date – July 20, 2018

Residential Support Workers
Drivers
Receptionist
Personal Health Support Worker
Recreational Therapist

Closing Date – August 31, 2018

You Are

- Passionate about helping others and committed to empowering and enhancing the lives of Inuit
- Knowledgeable and respectful of Inuit culture, values and beliefs
- Energetic, enthusiastic and driven to succeed
- Committed to ongoing learning, personal growth and professional development

How to Apply

Please email your covering letter and resume to careers@tungasuvvingatinuit.ca

Interested applicants should visit the careers section of our website www.tungasuvvingatinuit.ca for complete application instructions and full job descriptions.

Please Note: Preference in hiring will be given to qualified Inuit candidates and applicants are encouraged to self-identify. All TI employees are required to provide a vulnerable sector police record check with results acceptable to TI. We thank all interested applicants however only those selected for an interview will be contacted.